Flag W

The Bye laws already sanctioned (Flag W) do not provide for obtaining a license before opening a Bakery etc & the addition proposed appears necessary. It is not however reported whether the proposed addition has been published & whether any objections have been received thereto under section 68 (3) of the Rajpur Municipal Act. A draft of the additional rule required is enclosed for sanction.

Application for licenses for taking out licenses is not necessary in the case of Hotels or eating houses under cl 5 Sec 3 of the Rajpur Municipal Act.

The Sub-standard fee in which Municipality may be the case of those places as provided for licence & retain the licence or breach of licence is Sec 139 - Sub-Sec (5) of this section says that nothing in this Sec shall apply to the use of any hotel or Eating House for the sale of food for consumption on the premises Hotels & Eating Houses in Municipalities generally fall under this category It is therefore doubtful of a licence may be refused in the case of Hotels & Eating houses. Though licences may be refused in the Case of Bottling & Sweetmeat shops the conditions of this provision seem to have been overlooked while providing in licences in by clause under Sec 48 & it seems that the provision may be made given to some licences & the licence Sweetmeat shops & this question of amending Sec 135 may be considered so as to provide for licences in Hotels & Eating houses also & till then provisions may not be given to refuse licences in these cases.

In the new Bill, this existing restriction in clause 135 is retained this necessary amendment may be considered when this clause comes for discussion in the Committee.
